DEDICATION

This year's Manhigan is dedicated to Mr. V. H. Oberlander, our coordinator of Vocational Education. "Obie", because of his kindliness and ever-present good humor, has long been a favorite of both faculty and students. "Obie" probably has done more for the school as a whole and for numerous individuals in the school than any one we know, yet he never takes to himself the credit.

Because of "Obie's" fine, unselfish spirit we believe that this bit of recognition is both well-merited and long past due.

Manhigan

We are sure that each person looks forward to the time when the Manhigan is published (Doncha think—or doncha) So! finally the great day arrives. Each students peps up, gets his copy then frantically begins the search for hi picture. Finally he finds it and "Oh! don't I look horrid! Why, you can't even tell it's I". Such exclamations come from all sides. Mother sighs and decides that it's no use asking Mary to do that errand or any other thing 'till she gets the Manhigan read. And for several days everyone feels like a celebrity, autographing the books of his various friends. The people on the Manhigan staff breathe a sigh of relief and flop down on the nearest bed for a much needed rest after the hectic days they have spent. Mr. Van Arnam feels ten years of age drop from his shoulder and the color gradually comes back into his livid face—and the wrinkles disappear from his forehead. The summer here, school out for the summer and the old life resumes again.

January Class Officers

PAUL FREDERICK SMITH

"Smitty" was probably the most valued member of his class. He stood high scholastically and took part in many outside activities, especially science and music. He played the trumpet in the school band and also in Jimmy Sans Orchestra. His likeable nature and willingness to cooperate won for him so many friends that he was elected President of his class three times almost unanimously.

ROBERT TRUMAN MURPHY

"Bob" was one of the most popular members of the class. Because he is a good sport and has a rare sense of humor his classmates all liked him and elected him their vice president. He, too, had a high scholastic standing in all his subjects.

JESSIE MAEBELLE BRYNER

Jessie was a very able secretary of the class. She graduated with the highest scholastic honors, and very deservedly, too. She works hard at everything she undertakes, and many organizations of the school have benefited by her willing energy.

KATHRYN ANN HUBER

"Kate" will always be remembered for her cheerful smile and her energetic class spirit. She was a very efficient treasurer and kept the books straight in spite of all the difficulties which arose.

January Class History

The career of the 88 members of the January class began back in the days of the sophomores in 1936 when we elected Paul Smith for our president. At the same time, very wisely, we think, we chose Miss Pearl Danback as our advisor.

The first enterprise after organizing was to enter in the Alums Day Parade a float showing the Shelby football team all in their graves. The next year also found us in the parade, showing the defeat of Galion.

We have a faint recollection of a rummage sale, for the benefit of our treasury. Another boost was the "Holiday Hop," a dance held in the halls during Christmas vacation.

At the end of our sophomore year the class had a picnic out at Spiker's grove, with a baseball game and plenty to eat.

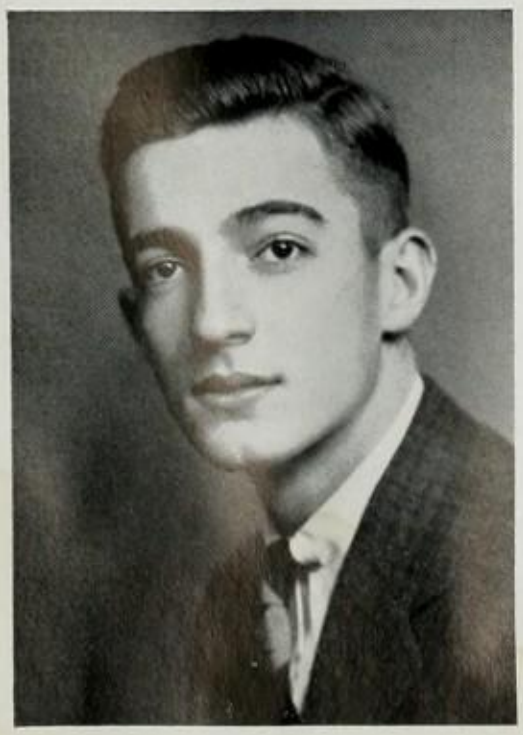
Our biggest undertaking was the Carnival Clomp, the dance of the year, which had the school in a whirl of excitement. It was an honest-to-goodness carnival with side shows, a House of Terror, bingo games, and true circus decorations.

In the fall of 1937 we took up the role of dignified Senior A's, to set an example for the rest of the school. We let down on our dignity one Thursday evening and sponsored a roller skating party at the rink at North Lake Park. It was filled to capacity and skaters had a rollicking time, though it was a forgotten sport to most of them.

"Lady of Letters" was our Senior play, with Doris Betz and Richard Moore in the leads. All in the cast played their parts well, and the performance was a decided success.

The climax of our social events was the Senior party. The scene was set as a Spanish tavern and the whole party carried out this effect.

Our commencement exercises were held on January 28, 1938, and with regret we realized our school days were over.



IN MEMORIAM

CHARLES WILLIAM SHAFER

October 28, 1919—May 28, 1937

An excellent student and all around good fellow,
"Shady's" sense of humor and his carefree,
cheerful manner were an inspiration to all who knew him.

June Class Officers

JOHN HOWARD GANO

This dignified senior has held the important position of class president for two years, shouldering the responsibility of it with a grin. Johnnie proves that he is quite as human as the rest of us as he was late for school nearly every morning this year. Liked equally well by teachers and friends, he has held many of the more important extra-curricular offices during his high school career.

BETTIE JEAN HOULETTE

Bettie is that short little girl with the dancing brown curls and sparkling brown eyes whom you have all seen skipping thither and yon always busy trying to help someone. Her merry contagious laugh has echoed thru the halls of M. H. S. for three busy years. Filling the position of class secretary is no easy job, but Bettie has held it very capably for two years.

HAROLD GEORGE LOESCH

Harold has often been referred to as the absent-minded professor's son of M. H. S. However, anyone can tell you that Harold isn't really absent-minded, but merely looks that way. His curly mop has waved gaily thru high school giving him an irresistible quality of friendliness that belongs only to him.

MARY OLIVE WERNER

Thru the trials and tribulations of being a treasurer of a treasury without money, Mary Werner has stood up bravely under the strain. Mary has often been seen straggling to school in time for the last bell with deep, dark circles under her eyes because the deflated treasury had left her sleepless the night before. For three years Mary has successfully jingled coins to the tune of the school bell.

The band on parade . . . led by . . . Dick Dent. . . . Lantz, Rhoads, Ross, Allen, and Straub pushing forward for pep. . . . Fair members of M. H. S. focusing attention on their chief interests.

June Class History

The Class of 1938 began its journey in the higher realms of education, September, 1935 under the Blue and White of Simpson. After a year of learning (?) its 329 members left their former abode to grace the halls of M. H. S. They began their stay at this dear old institution under the delightful dominance of Kate Fighter and Doris Marshall, with Sue Paste and Mary Werner keeping the records and money and Mr. Mann as class advisor. It was not until the end of that year that the class became really organized, and prepared to show M. H. S. its "stuff." At the end of the year John Gano was elected president, and faithfully handled that office until graduation. On January 16, 1937, a bake sale was given, which cleared a neat profit; followed on April 10th by that dance of dances. "The Sailor Sway".

After a three months' vacation the class met again, now 12B's, and elected officers for the Senior year. John Gano, Bettie Houlette, and Mary Werner retained their respective offices and Harold Loesch replaced Tru Clark as vice-prexy. Another bake sale was held December 4th which made a profit of $16.00. On the 10th of December the class did its bit to celebrate our victory over Columbus South. That night Sans swung out in celebration at the Basket Ball. About this time there was much ado about rings, pins, and invitations. The class presented another bit of public entertainment March 25th at the Coliseum, in the form of a skating party (bandages and liniment were provided at the gate). On May 12th the new departing Class gave the student body a glimpse of long hidden talent, at a special 12A assembly.

Soon afterward they showed us, in "Ladies of the Jury," that they possessed not only a talent for acting but a sense of humor as well. At last came the long awaited event, the Class Party, with "Howdy" Gorman and dancing in the gym (and all the dance halls from Toledo to Buffalo). Came Class Day, Baccalaureate, a week of rest and then, ... Commencement. The Class goes forth to stamp the world with M. H. S. tradition. It leaves behind not only pleasant memories but outstanding records in scholarship, sports, and service to others. May it ever prosper.

Our German Band is caught serenading. . . . Looking up at Jane Miller and Kathleen McIntosh as they provide music. . . . High steppers in the bugle corps. . . . Not only criminals are finger printed by Herbert Garnes and Gloria Guest, Ruth Meisel might resent it.

This is one of the most important of the School Clubs. It is an organization for girls only; the girls become members through their participation in athletic affairs. A girl must make one hundred points to become a member. If she wants a numeral she must have three hundred, an emblem one thousand, and a pin fifteen hundred. These points may be gotten through hiking, skating—roller and ice—skiing, tobogganing, and participating in the intermurals held after school. The club tries to teach each member good sportsmanship, good fellowship, honesty, and loyalty, and is much helped by the untiring effort of Miss Clapsaddle, the club advisor.

Junior Hi Y

This is another department of the Hi Y. You see, the Hi Y is divided into three clubs—one for Sophomores. one for the Juniors, and one for the Seniors. Of course, this club has the same purpose as the Senior Hi Y—to create, extend, and maintain, throughout the community, Christian character.

The Photo Club

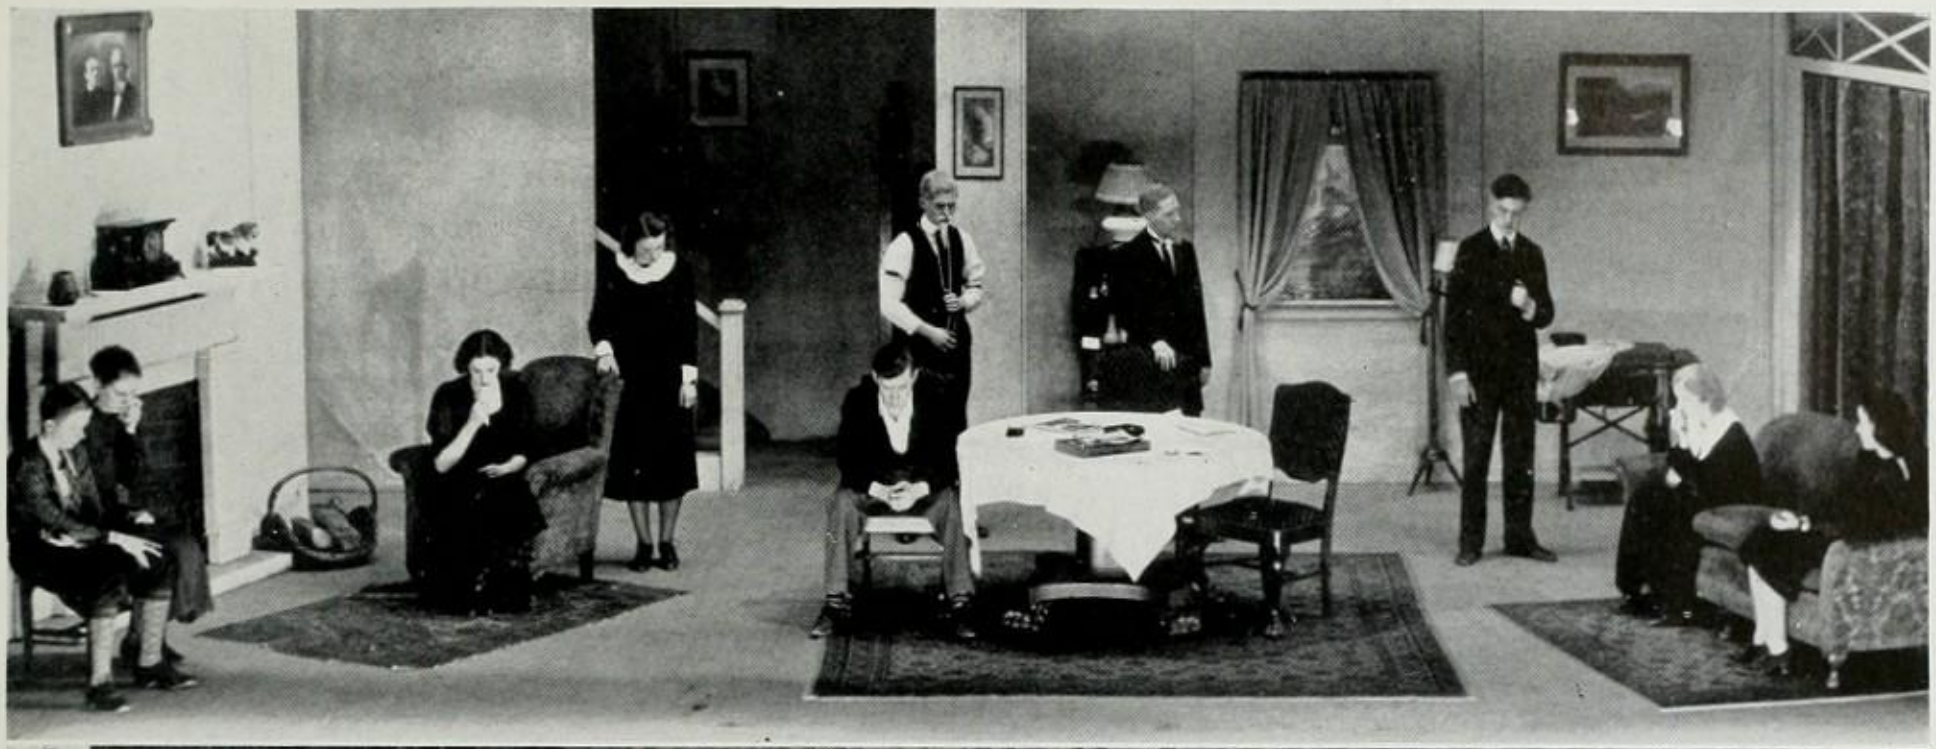
Second Row: Anna Pasheilich, Esther Leopold, Alma Shadel, Marjorie Fonkalsrud, Marjorie Loomis, Virginia Linham, William Ackerman, Howard Ray, Charles McClure, Lemoyne Cavin, Wilton Morkel.
Third Row: Mr. Elder, Robert McAninch, Robert Tobias, Walter Mayer, Rudolph Perry, Henry Mahon, Frederick Hanson, Richard Morgan, Floyd Myers, Arthur Axtell, Robert Castor, John Stretch, Edward Umbarger.

This club, under the direction of Mr. Elder, is one of the most important of the school. As you have gathered from the name, it is a club for photography. The members of this club take and develop pictures, study the camera, and so on. You'll find them present at all the important activities of the school. Yes, each with a camera tucked under his arm, studiously taking pictures for his own pleasure and for the benefit of the school.



Red Masque Play

Jack Selander, Esther Jenkins, Helen Sternbaum, Alice Mathews, Willis Lewis, Robert McAninch, Robert Tobias, Harold Loesch, Vivian Miller, Grace Honse.

Because of the very excellent material on hand the dramatics instructor, E. L. Heasley, decided to produce a harder and more dramatic play than has been given by the Red Masque for a long time. It was "Icebound," a play that has been popular with both amateur and professional players for many seasons. Needless to say, the production turned out to be a great success, after the hard work and cooperation of the players, the production staff and Mr. Heasley.

Vocational

Mr. Oberlander, Champion, Markley, Diskosky, Bugbee, Shambre, Haag, Mayer, Roth, Murray Fisher, Robert Fisher, Callahan, Ross, Spicer, Boyce, Penrose, Kemle, Such, Horvath, Garver, Leach, Baki, (President) DeMoss, Grassick, Vesper, Weingartner, Brooker, Katrinos, Fry, Karnavas, Gardner, Campbell, Thomas, Bush, Meredith, Ladd, Stuhl, Mowry, Underwood.

This club represents those pupils taking the Vocational Course and, of course, that is where the club gets its name. The president is John Baki and he makes an excellent one. This club, just as all others, has a sponsor, who is no other than Mr. Oberlander. If you think back, you will remember that this was the club that gave the Vocational Club dance last fall. When you realize that the club is made up of boys, and boys alone, you will recognize that they deserve a big hand.

Red Cross Council

First Row: Gloria Guest, Virginia Fairman, Helen Koch, Herbert Garnes, Frances Case, Helen Whisler, Miss Shires, Betty Smith, Ruth Meisel.
Second Row: Kathleen Gehl, Virginia Balyeat, Marjorie Mitchell, Jane Stough, Evadine Selby, Naomi Giffin, Bette Greene, Mildred Nanich, Rebecca Howe, Paul Parcenue, Caroline Robnolte, Robert Hostettler.
Third Row: Ruth Wymer, Norma Horn, Vivian Miller, June DeVore, Marianne Stander, Alice Mathews, Betty Edwards, Elma Irvine, David Chatlain.
Fourth Row: Elaine Fox, Norma Underwood, Helen Downard.

We all will agree that the Red Cross is a very worthy cause. It is a staff on which the poor and needy can lean. Therefore, this club should be looked up to as one of the most outstanding in the school. The members, with the help of Miss Shires, have done many things for the school. One of the things they have done has been to establish a yearly drive to aid those persons who need glasses and cannot afford to buy them. This club, above all others, deserves all the support we gan give it.

Social Science Service Club

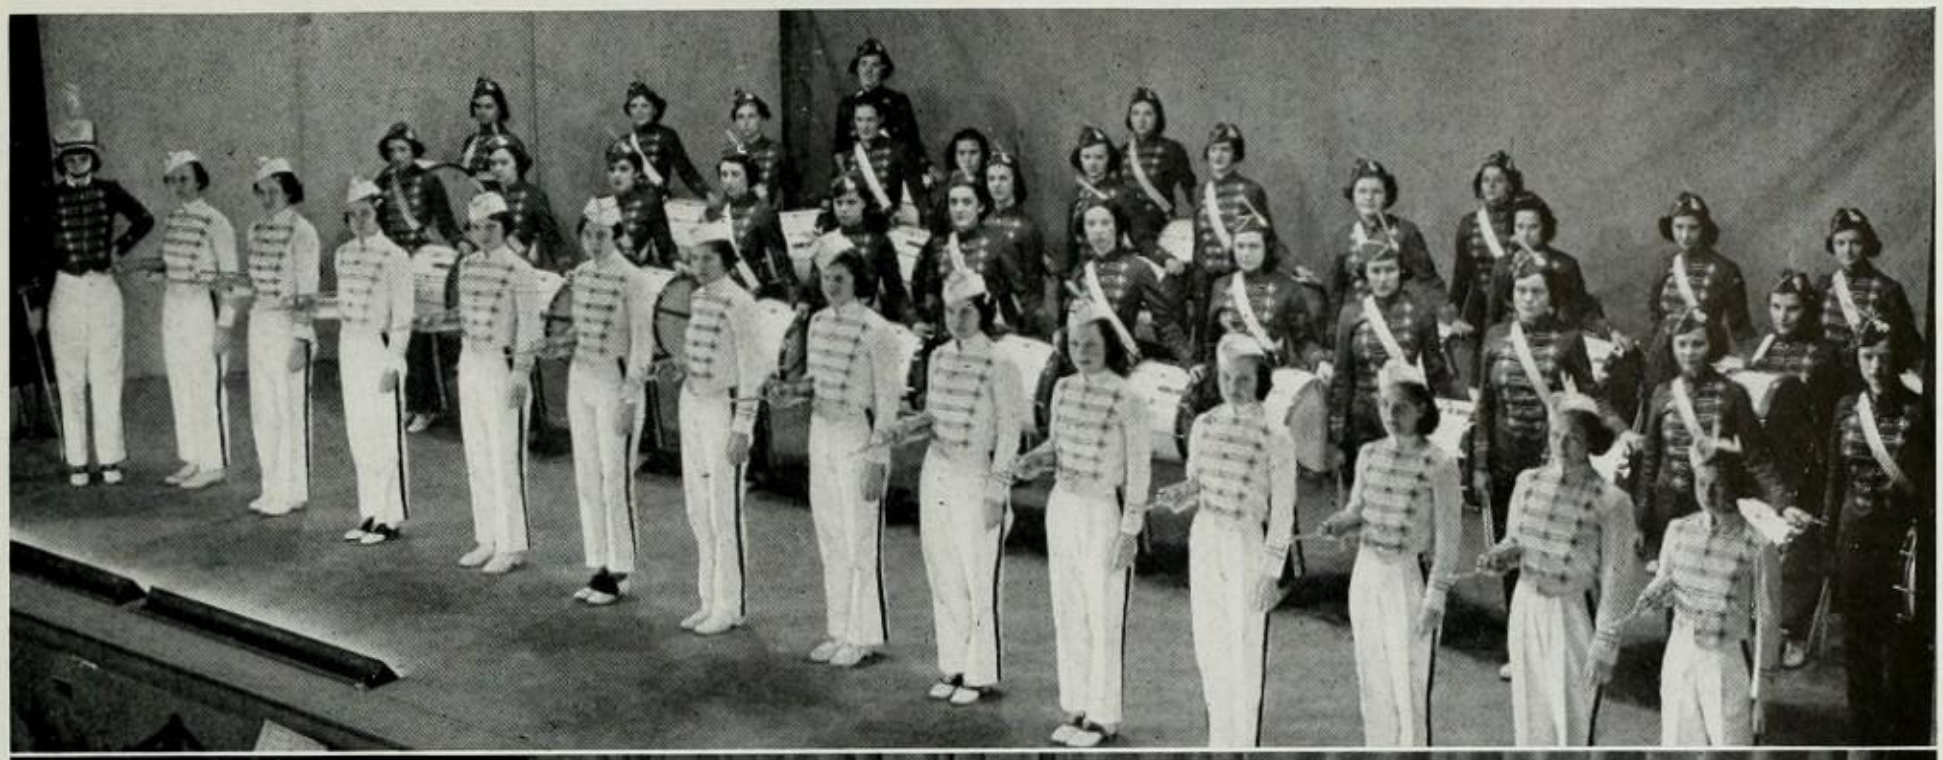
Yes, as you have gathered, this club serves, and serves righteously, too. For instance, at Christmas time it always sees that the school has a Christmas tree; also, this club usually conducts a campaign for the needy. Last year it sent baskets too, containing food, clothing, and toys. Of course, the club could not possibly have done these things without the able help of Miss Dunham and Mr. Coe, who, with the cooperation of the members, worked hard to live up to the name of the club.



The Drum and Bugle Corps

Third Row—Mildred Durbin, Marguerite Bader, Mary Alice Mead.
Fifth Row—Janet Kelly, Vivian Miller, Joan Twitchell.

Every fall during football season, this organization of girls parades the field in perfect step and order, and all of us seated in the stands thrill with pride to think that such an inspiring sight is an organization of our school. However, I wonder if any of us realize how much work and time is spent by these girls (with the cooperation of Mr. Holcombe) to make this organization perfect. Not only do they practice during the season, but all the school year they spend a part of their time in practicing their different formations and the varied rhythms beat out by their sticks. I say we thrill with pride! We should, and we should also give each of the girls in the Drum and Bugle Corps, and also Mr. Holcombe, a good pat on the back.

The Girls' Glee Club

J. Merton Holcombe, Jane Miller.
Second Row—Carolyn Robnolte, Edythe Tither, Mary Schwartzkopf, Esther Goettle, Janet Kelly, Ruth Husung, Elizabeth Burkholder, Viola Meister, Dorothy Pearson, Marjorie Walker, Marjorie Mitchell, Dawn Holt, Roselyn Mason, Jean Wolff, Vivian Miller, Marjorie Loomis, Ada Mae Harbaugh, Vivian Bone, Jane Rizer, Margaret Rizer, Marguerite Miller, Jean Bone, Dorothy Bell.

I don't believe that the name needs much explaining for it is exactly what it implies. An organization of girls who sing for the pure joy they get out of it. Here again, Mr. Holcombe lends a helping hand and directs the girls in their singing. Go down to the auditorium during the third period on Thursday and you'll find them hard at work, stopping here and there—correcting a mistake or polishing up a passage. Sometimes they come through without any stops feeling a little elated over the fact that they have gotten the swing of the song, especially in that particularly hard place. Somehow or other you feel like trying a little harder to overcome your own mistakes when you leave such a practice.

A Cappella Choir

Here again Mr. Holcombe acts as supervisor and leads this choir of mixed voices through to a brilliant finish. This is another vocal group, this time one in which both boys and girls participate, though sometimes the boys are conspicuous by their absence. This group works very hard and sings very well. After you have heard them you are left a little awed. You know, the breath has sort of left you, and your spine feels a little chilly. Some of the more solemn songs sung by them would bring tears to the eyes of the meanest old dragon alive. Come on A Cappella! I'm sure that every person in this high school appreciates you and gives you heaps of encouragement to live in the future as well as you have in the past.

Boys' Glee Club

J. Merton Holcombe, Edythe Tither, Jane Miller.

First Row—John Gano, Bruce Goldman, Richard Wright, Dale Doty, Harold Duda, Bill Smith, Jake Sternbaughm, Henry Rayburn, Harry Weaver, Nick Mavomatis, George Miller, Don Mabrey.

Second Row—Allen Cline, Fredric Troll, Wilton Morkel, Arthur Axtell, Rudolph Perry, Frederick Hanson, John Stretch.

Third Row—Bill Wygant, Maxwell Miller, Paul Davis, Forest Marlow.

As you have gathered from the name, this is a boys' vocal group and is again in the hands of the much overworked Mr. Holcombe. The singing done by this group is exceedingly good, as some of you remembered from a program in which they participated a year ago last Christmas. Their vocalizing was indeed pleasant to the ears and everyone had praise for the boys who thus made the age-old Christmas songs live anew. So let's all give these fellows a hand for the excellent work they have done and will continue to do in the future.

The Band

Second Row—Mary Baer, Ruth Blaney, Bernard Simmons, Mary Lou Marks, Helen Holzmiller, Gene Lantz, Berlington Owens, Jane Miller, Harold Wynn, Rudolph Perry, Ralph Arlin, Harold Duda.
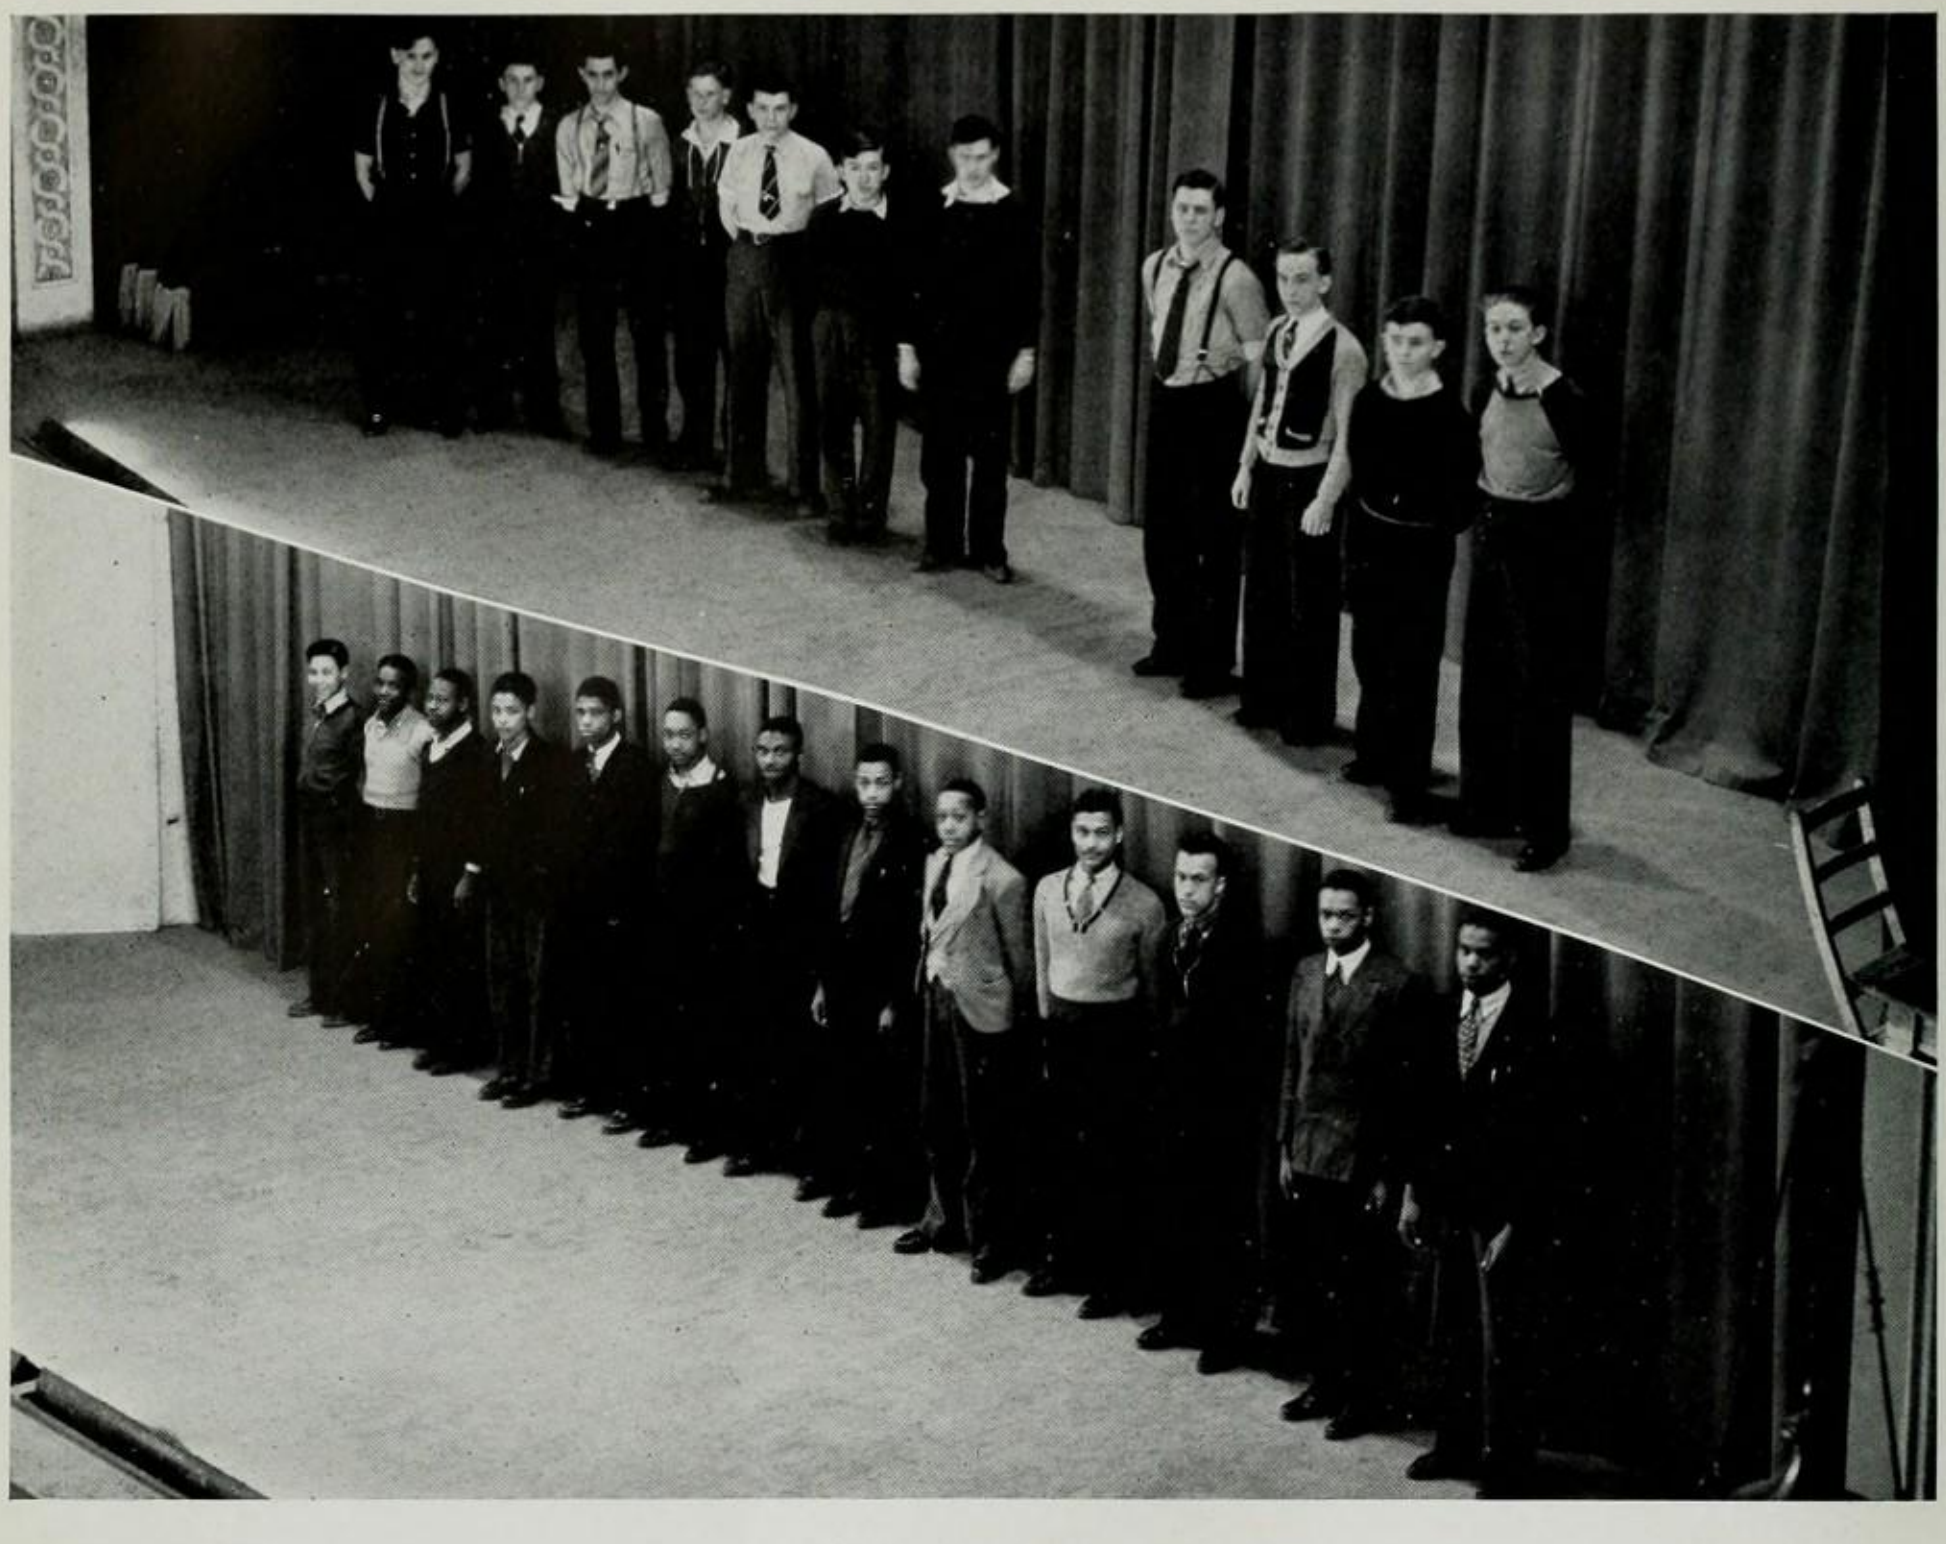
Dick Dent, J. Merton Holcombe, George O'Dell, Joe Stehle, Bill Wygant, Martha Spetka.

Let's all give three cheers for Mr. Holcombe and his band. Why give three cheers? Who could help it. Why every time any of us hears that band do its stuff we swell with pride to think that M. H. S. has turned out such a perfect musical group. Each of those fellows and girls deserves a medal. Could we have gotten to school at 6:30? Some of us couldn't, because it's all we can do to get here by 8:15. Yet these members of the band did it. And not only once but often. So let's give them those three hearty cheers!

Orchestra

Violin: Joseph Pival, Lois Robinson, Gladys Kerr, Evangeline Stone, Robert Charles, Dale Bechtel, William Myers, William Long, Marjorie Fonkalsrud, Geraldine Marlow, Ruth Smith, Janet Baughman, Fred Hanson, Jaene Myeres, Zettie Tooker, Naomi Hamblin, Eleanor Bond, Helen Treneff. Viola: Eleanor Carver. Cello: Malcolm Shawk, Vivian Miller. Flute: Alvena Spriggins, Jeanette Werner. Clarinet: Jacques Edwards, Jack Fry, James Hart, Dorothy Wagner. Saxophone: Paul Hannewald. Trumpet: Robert Prosser, William Smith. Trombone: Walter Lake, Robert Lehman. Tympani and Drums: Willis Wygant, Robert Norris. Bass: David Hagelbarger, Richard Sparks, William Houston. Piano: Jane Miller, Betty Axtell. Director: Mr. Jorgensen.

No, it's not a jazz band, just the school orchestra—and a mighty good one, too. Take a bow, Mr. Jorgensen, and not only you, but all the members of the organization. I say take a bow because all of you have worked hard and long to make the orchestra what it is, and I congratulate you because you've done a swell job of it.



Booth and Sound System Operators

Sound System Operators: Frank Mowery, Frank Ladd, Chris Winegardner, Richard Thorpe.

The boys of the group deserve a lot of credit, for they operate the sound system for all our morning announcements and the music for the noon dances on Fridays. Not only do they operate the sound system, but under the supervision of Mr. Oberlander, they installed it. Therefore I think all of us should take our hats off to those boys, for we would not have this decided advantage without the cooperation of these operators.

Colored Hi-Y

Charles Jarrett, Willie Watkins, Calvin Harper, Robert Black, Joe Logan, Howard Blossomgame, George Bibbs, Love Jacobs, Mose Eubanks, Allen Cline, Fred Atwater, William Ferguson, Samuel Davis.

The Hi Y has set apart a club, or division, a division for the colored boys. They have as yet no advisor, but hope to get one in the near future. As all the rest of the clubs, they have the purpose—to maintain, create, and extend Christian character throughout the community.

The Senior Hi-Y

Front Row—Dick Shaw, Bob Tobias, Albert Allan, Warren Rupp, Bud Ziegler, Bob Murphy, Fred Lewis, Earle Deems, Chuck Hawkins, Dick Donnan, Paul Smith, Karl Koroknay.
Second Row—Howard Marriott, Bill Ahrendt, Ed Maxwell, John Hallabrin, Don Ross, Bob Rhoads, Bill Long, Bill Dow, Jim Gilbert.

All of us have heard of the Hi-Y organization at some time or other. Because of this we also know that it is a boys' Christian organization similar to the girls' Blue Tri. This organization has a purpose—to create, maintain and extend, throughout the community, Christian character. You all remember that this department of the Hi-Y was the one which gave the Cake Walk for the purpose of helping Mike Ondov. These boys are under the excellent leadership of Mr. Bishop and have for their president that round faced, smiling Warren Rupp.

The S. R. C.

Third Row—Miss Mendelhall, Sue Paste, Mary Bair, Mildred Wappner, Jean Voyik, Katherine Kayser, Martha Spetka, Mary Black, Jeanette Werner, Francis Hanson, Mary Werner, Ruby Bollman, Dorothy Bell, Evelyn Timmons, Mr. Stout.

All of us should take an interest in this organization because we, as a whole, are governed through it. The S. R. C. is to the school what the Congress or the Legislature is to the Nation and State. Under the supervision of the teachers, this group of students makes, regulates, and enforces all the laws of the school. Of course, Mr. Beer has the right to check the powers of this organization. The members are elected by popular vote, and each class has an appointed number of representatives. That is, the Senior A's have fifteen—the Senior B's ten—the Junior A's eight—and so on down to the Ten B's who have two.

The Sophmore Hi-Y

This division of the Hi Y is for the Sophomores—you know—the Freshies. It helps the Sophomores to become acquainted and know the school. As all the other clubs of this type the purpose is to spread throughout the community the idea of Christian character.

The Red Masque Club

Acting—Helen Sternbaum, Grace Honse, Alice Matthews, Don Speakman, Esther Jenkins.
First Row—E. L. Heasley, Harold Loesch, Minnie Stander, Mary Spiker, Willa Hollingshead, Felice Walker, Helen Downard, Maxine Hartmann, Vivian Miller, Bette Greene.

The Red Masque is a club organized to encourage creative dramatic expression and to further dramatic appreciation. Working toward these two endeavors the members and sponsor feel more than pleased with the results of this past year. This year there has been a new type of dramatic work presented to the high school by E. L. Heasley, the club advisor. A group of dramatic readers was organized and trained to be sent out to the various contests to gain points for the high school's admission to the National Forensic League, one of the best organized dramatic groups in the country. On various occasions throughout the year they were asked to speak many times. The presentation of the club's annual play, "Icebound," also did much to make people realize the superiority of the club. Their record is ample proof that the club and its work are well worth the time and interest of every student.

The Hyphonerian

What does everyone do immediately after eighth period class every other Friday? Why everyone rushes to his home room to get the latest issue of the dear old "Hypho." We all know that but all of us don't know just what does take place behind the closed doors of the Hypho room directly before the paper is scheduled to come out. If you can visualize Miss Patterson walking up and down the room tearing her hair and holding her head between her hands with an exasperated look on her face, or the editor, his head swathed in towels with a box of aspirin by his side, papers scattered all over the floor, and the scared, awed look of the reporters as they scurry hither thither, writing and rewriting, or perhaps a waste-paper basket full and overflowing with crumpled up papers, that would be a correct (though a little stretched) picture of the life behind the headlines. Then, in contrast, comes the sweet, peaceful bell, welcomed by everyone, between the deadlines when the more peaceful, monotonous, everyday schedule resumes.

The Blue Tri

Fourth Row: Margaret Terman, Gladys Kerr, Lucy Patterson, Gloria Guest, Marjorie Schwein, Marjorie Woodard, Pearl Rube, Eugenie Bushnell, Mary Marks, Jean Wolff, Gloria Fisher, Geraldine Sampsel, Mariane Given, Betty Roth, Betty Reese.

Fifth Row: Elma Irvine, Virginia Mathews, Betty Axtell, Miriam Jenkins, Thelma Peterson, Josephine Hughes, Theodoria Wendt, Marian Birch, Milena Miller, Mary Brooker, Ruth Mengert, Doris Kochert, Esther Duncan, Helen Davidson, Ruth Carson, Betty Thomas, Marian Reese, Ada Harbaugh.

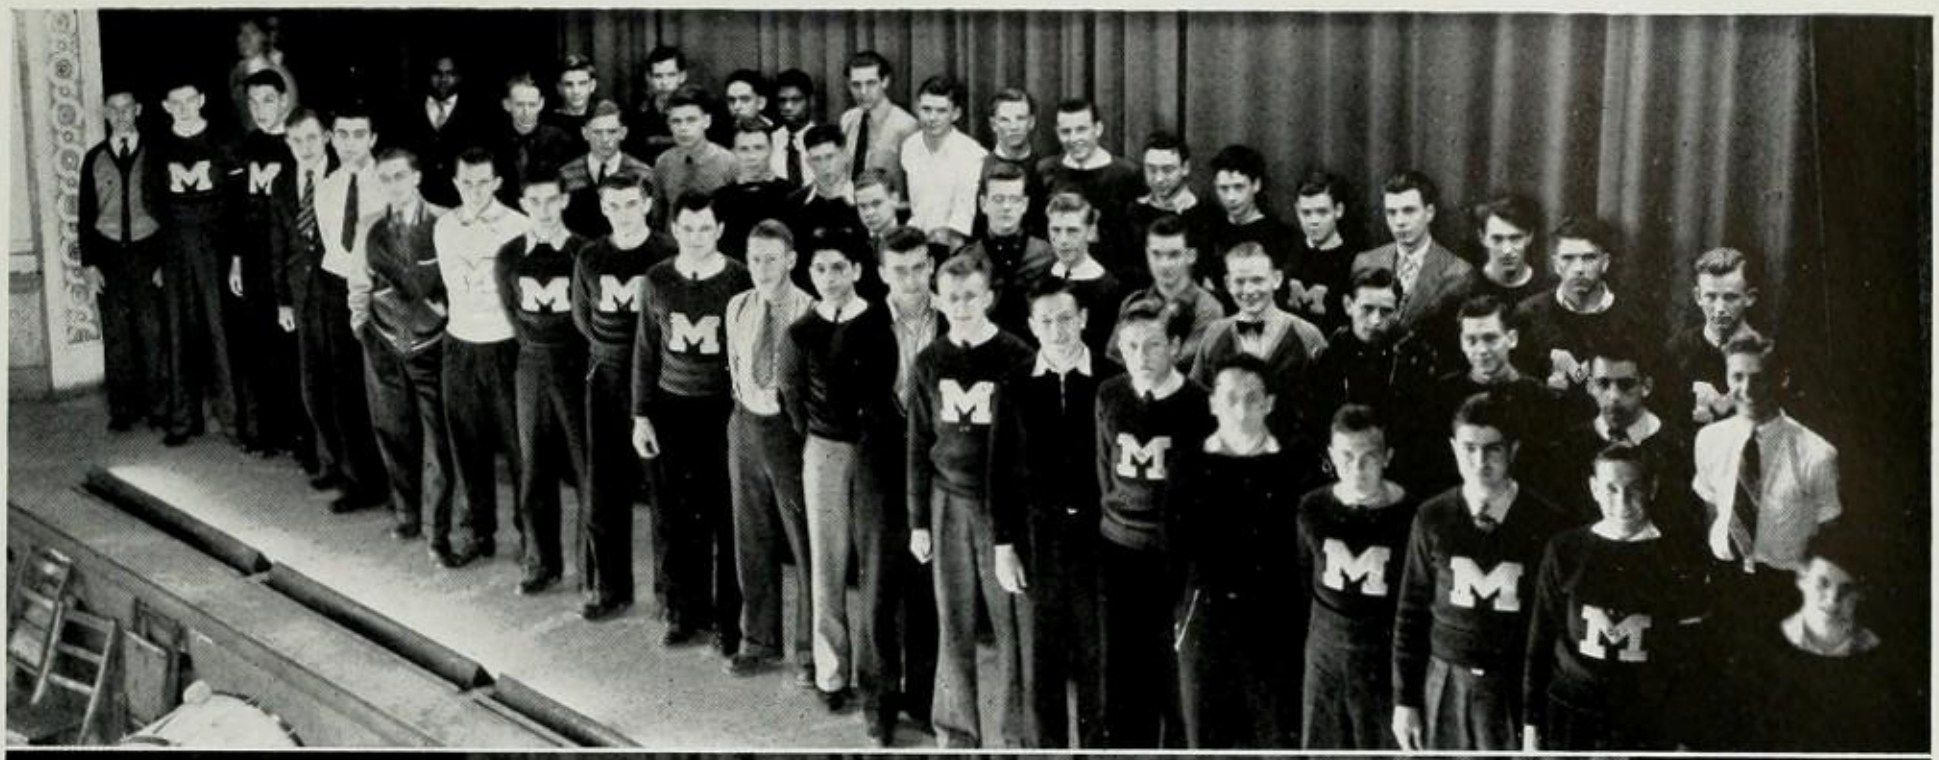
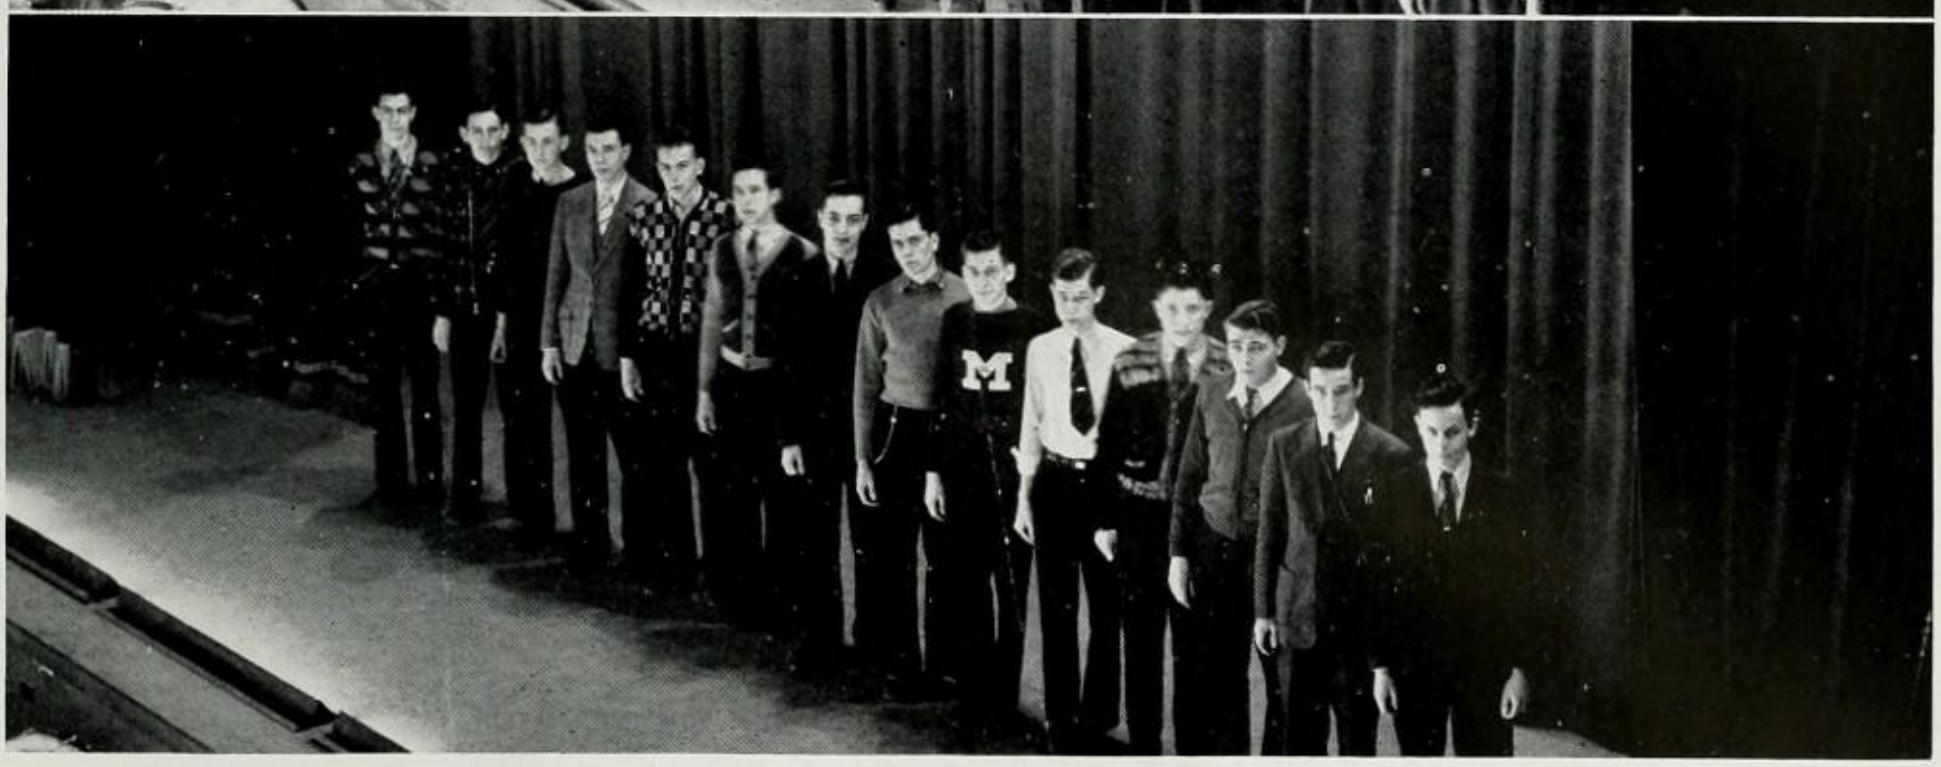
This club is one of the most important clubs of the whole school. As you all know, it is a girls' club sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. The symbol of the club is a blue triangle; it is from this that the club gets its name, Blue Tri. The three sides of the triangle each represent a part of an individual's makeup. That is, the first side represents a girl's spiritual life, the second a girl's mental life, and the third, her physical life. The Y. W. C. A. tries to broaden each of these branches of life in a girl through the club's activities and entertainments. It is a linking together of all girls into one fellowship.





The "M" Association

Did any of you girls ever wonder how your big handsome heroes got those beautiful red sweaters with the "M's" on them? They belong to the "M" Association. The "M" Association is to the boys what the "A A" is to the girls. In it they strive to earn their sweaters and letters. One of the functions of this club is to sell candy at all the games. Therefore, when you go to a game, purchase a candy bar and give the boys a lift.

Bowling Club

Dick Schwab, Roy Baker, Ray Bush, Robert Straub, Virgil Wolff, Jack Schwartz, Bernard Hoel, Robert Rhoads, Warren Morr, William Herpich, Robert Knofflock, Thomas Laird, Robert Hostettler.

This club consists of a group of boys who became interested in the hobby of bowling. They go down to Meder's Bowling Alley once a week. This club formed with the idea of forming a league with other schools and have bowling contests. However, this idea has been postponed until next year. Also next year there will be suits with M. H. S. on the back of them for those belonging to this organization.

Organizations

Organizations play a very important part in the activities of any school. Because of this, clubs and other activities outside the usual school work have a very prominent position in our school. All the clubs of this school are formed because of the desire of the pupils. No teacher can start a club. The idea and the plans must come from the pupils.

Clubs have a very definite purpose. In the first place they inform the pupil on subjects—such as chemistry, photography, or languages; or they give him experience along a certain line. Examples of the latter type are the publication groups. Other organizations teach the students good sportsmanship, give them a chance to develop their athletic abilities, and help to show them how to get along with other people. Then, there are clubs formed for the purpose of helping someone else. Such clubs are the Red Cross, and the Social Science groups. Also, there are the music associations in which the pupil participates because of the enjoyment he gets from creating musical harmony.

And so they go on and on, showing how important this lighter side of school life is. Every pupil should belong to at least two clubs. After all—although studies come first—all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy. If one cannot be a good leader, he can at least be a good participator, and one's extra-curricular activities count a great deal in one's school life.

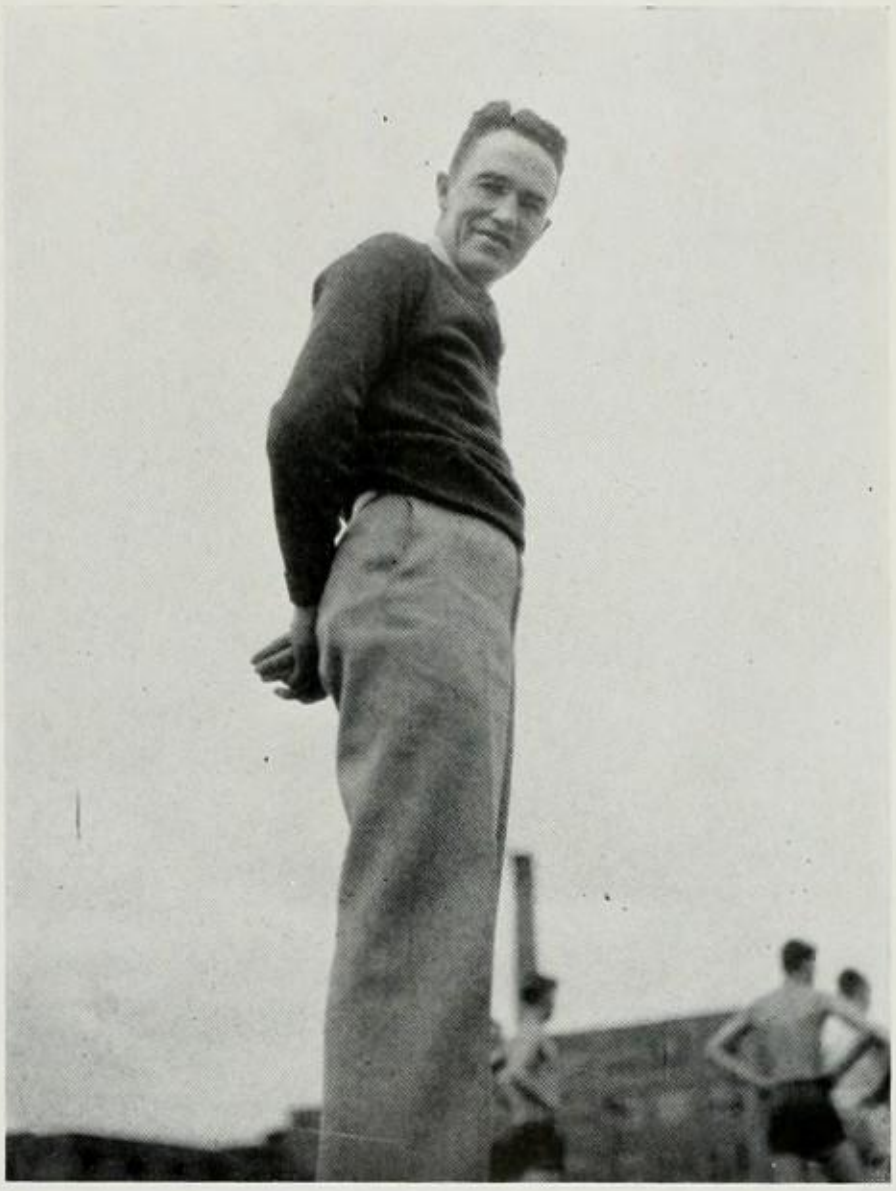
Mr. Beer tries his hand at coaching his own squad . . . while Coach Murphy shivers. . . . In reality those in the huddle are discussing a fair visitor in the first row. . . . Training for the next game . . . and . . . training all alone with the not-so-soft dummy.



J. RUSSELL MURPHY

For many years Coach Murphy has been at the head of our Athletic Department. To him is due most of the success of the football and basketball squads. His constant striving for good teams to represent Mansfield have won him high regard.

HARRY E. MEHOCK

Ably assisting Mr. Murphy is Harry Mehock. He is coach of the track team, and to him we give the credit for originating and developing the Relays which are now more than state famous. He also is in charge of the boys' Physical Education department in which department he has gained esteem.

AKRON WEST 14 — MANSFIELD 19

With several first stringers coming back, the fans expected a good team. They were not disappointed, when the locals turned in a 19 to 14 win against the Akron West Cowboys. The Cowboys picked up an early lead when they scored midway in the first period. The Tygers retaliated when the Tyger field general went over in the second period. The score at the half was seven up. Mansfield went into the lead on another touchdown but a fumble paved the way for the Cowboys' second score. But Hallabrin again crossed into paydirt to end the scoring, five minutes after the last quarter began.

MASSILLON 6 — MANSFIELD 6

When the Men of Murphy went up against the powerful Massillon eleven, they were given little chance of bringing home a win. Thus when Bob Glass plunged over the goal, all hope of victory for the Bengals disappeared. However, they were revived when Mansfield made three successive first downs and stood on the Massillon four yard line. After three unsuccessful attempts by Hallabrin and Kinkle, Hallabrin on the last down dove over, tying the score. The try for the extra point was inches wide. Hope again rose as Hallabrin trotted from deep into Mansfield territory to the Massillon 20 where he slipped and feil. Before the Tygers could score the whistle blew, ending the ball game.

ERIE STRONG VINCENT 0 MANSFIELD 0

After their tie with the highly touted Massillon gridders the locals were expected to crush Erie Strong Vincent. However, the fans were considerably surprised when the Pennsylvania team held the Bengals to a scoreless deadlock. Many times the Tygers were in sight of the promised land, but they lacked sufficient punch to score.

"Sparky" Adams was the mainstay in the Bengal forward wall.

WOOSTER 0 — MANSFIELD 25

Mansfield encountered little trouble defeating a lighter Wooster team as the Tygers again demonstrated their powerful attack. Playing without Hallabrin, their brilliant captain, the Men of Murphy scored once in each period while their strong forward wall prevented the Generals from making a single first down. The Winsper coached aggregation was completely outclassed as the Mansfield backs consistently made long gains, with Kinkle and Nagle, a converted center, leading the way. This game offered Coach Murphy the first opportunity to use his inexperienced players. The Tyger mentor took advantage of this by using over three full teams. Outstanding performances were turned in by Ziegler, Rupp, Horvath, and Dials.

SANDUSKY 6 — MANSFIELD 0

This game saw the thrice-beaten Blue Streaks of Sandusky hand a demoralized Mansfield team their first defeat of the season by a score of 6 to 0. The heavily favored Tygers were able to gain little ground through the visitor's fighting line, while the Streaks, keyed up for this game, scored in the final quarter on a pass to Balconi in the end zone. The defeat added strength to the belief that a Sandusky jinx exists.

SHELBY 18
MANSFIELD 39

Shelby came to Mansfield determined to live up to their reputation of being a fighting team but was unable to match the superior man power of the Tygers. During the entire first half the Mansfield lineup consisted of only sophomores and juniors, which explains the 121 to 6 lead Shelby held at the intermission. In the second half the Mansfield varsity exhibited a power attack that the bordertown team could not attempt to stop. Hallabrin, elusive Tyger captain, returned to his former prestige for the first time since his injury, by scoring two touchdowns on brilliant runs.

WESTERN RESERVE FROSH 0—MANSFIELD 3

Mansfield won a 3 to 0 tussle from an overconfident Western Reserve Freshman squad. Although the Tygers were heavily outweighed by the college eleven they more than held their own against them. Three times the Bengals drove almost to the goal and three times they were stopped by the Red Cat impregnable forward wall. In the last stanza the local lads drove down the field and they finally had a first on the five. The Tygers crashed into the line but they were stopped, however, and Johnny Hallabrin attempted a field goal with Joe Majoy holding. It was good, the first and only score of the fray.

AKRON KENMORE 6 — MANSFIELD 21

As Coach Murphy started his reserves, the first stringers found themselves on the short end of a 6 to 0 score. Miller, crack Kenmore back, scored early in the first quarter. However, this was the only time the visitors were permitted to score because the Tyger forward wall completely bottled up the lads from the Rubber City. Johnny Hallabrin ran 40 yards behind spectacular blocking for the Bengals' first score. The Tyger captain converted the extra point. Early in the second half, Nagle carried the pigskin into paydirt and again Hallabrin made the extra point. It was the Bengal field general who broke through a large hole to turn in the last score of the game. The attempted kick was good.

MANSFIELD 13

On a snow-swept gridiron, Mansfield downed a fighting Ashland eleven 13 to 0. Johnny Kinkle went over for both touchdowns. A pass from Hallabrin to Dials gave us the extra marker. This tussle ended the most successful season the Tygers have experienced for quite a while. Stehle, Luckie, Dials, Heiser, Horvath, Adams, Rupp, Ziegler, Hallabrin, Kinkle, Majoy turned in brilliant performances in their last game. Baliet, Koroknay, Bowersock, Deems, Baker, Hamilton, and Hammett also played in their last game for dear old H. H. S.

AKRON KENMORE

The Jungle Cats, in dropping a closely fought battle to a sharp-shooting Akron Kenmore combine ruined their record of having won their fist game for five years straight. Loose guarding was responsible for the defeat. Freddy Lewis, a veteran, scored half of the team's total points. It was a nip and tuck affair but unfortunately, the locals came out on the short end of the count, which was twenty-two to twenty.

COLUMBUS SOUTH

The Bengals scored their first victory of the season over an over-confident Columbus South quintet in a close decision 23 to 21. Big Elmer Dials, with eight points, paced the Cat team to its initial win.

SHELBY

The local court cavorteers, eager to show their offensive strength after two close games, collected thirty points while holding the Bordertown athletes to thirteen. Lewis and Scott made eight points apiece to lead the Tygers in scoring.

CANTON McKINLEY

The locals lost their second game of the year to a taller Canton McKinley outfit 24 to 17. Freddy Lewis, playing his next to last game with dear old M. H. S. was a brilliant defensive star, but his work was for naught as the Bengal offense bogged down.

ERIE EAST

The Tyger fans had their first look at an out-of-state club, when Mansfield played Erie East. However, they were not impressed by the brand of ball that the visitors displayed, as the Bengals downed the Pennsylvania quintet 30 to 24. Lyons, diminutive Mansfield guard, was outstanding in the victory. He made seven points.

PARMA

Another game, another thriller, this time with Parma. The score was practically tied throughout, but the Tygers came through in the pinch. Jack Dugger, starting his first game at a forward post, accumulated nine points while Scott collected six as did Hallabrin and Lyons. The final score, 32 to 30.

ASHLAND

Running into tougher opposition than expected, the Bengals had to be contented with a near tie score through three quarters of the Ashland fray. Then the Cats started hitting on all cylinders, and rolled up an unsurmountable lead. The score board flashed a 34 to 25 victory for the local combine.

SHELBY

The Mansfield Tygers met the Shelby Whippets on the local hard wood January 15. As soon as the whistle sounded, the Tygers were away on a scoring spree which topped all records in recent years. When the final bell clanged, the score board showed that the localites had accumulated a total of 51 points while holding the Bordertown athletes to a meager 15. Every man on the Tyger squad saw some service and there were only two who failed to score. Shelley and Dials were high point men with 10 and 9 markers respectively while Jack Lyons was a tower of strength on the defense. So tight was the defense that the Whippets made only three buckets from the field.

SANDUSKY

Finding trouble with glass backboards and different baskets, our Tygers were defeated by Sandusky 32 to 24. Since Mansfield renewed relations with the Blue Streaks, they have as yet to come out ahead. The Bengals piled up an early lead, and they led at the first quarter 14 to 6. However, this soon dwindled to nothing, because the Tygers were unable to score with any degree of regularity. Hallabrin, erstwhile football hero, was the scoring threat for the locals with eleven points.

CLEVELAND GLENVILLE

Still in a scoring slump, Mansfield's cagers went down to defeat at the hands of the sharp shooting Cleveland Glenville. The Tygers were behind all the way. Although the Bengals had 62 shots from the field, they were only able to sink five of them. On the other hand, the lads from the lake city scored from all angles. When the final whistle blew, our lads were behind 28 to 21.

MOUNT VERNON

Gloom prevails as the local court cavorters dropped another decision to a crafty Mount Vernon quintet. However, the Yellow Jackets needed an overtime to turn the trick. Dials kept the localites in the running by accumulating eleven points while Scott was a defensive star. At the end of four quarters the score was 24 up. Although the Tygers dropped in two buckets in the overtime, they fell short as the Yellow Jackets made three field goals. Final score was 30 to 28.

WILLARD

In the next game the Tygers traveled to Willard where they managed to eke out a 28 to 26 decision over the railroaders. Again Hallabrin was the high point man with eleven markers while Scott made seven. This was the first game in four starts that the Bengals won.

ASHLAND

With big Dave Shelley leading the way a Mansfield team did what combines in past have practically considered impossible, namely, in beating Ashland twice in the same season. In the absence of Coach Murphy, Harry Mehock managed the team to its second victory over a green Ashland county combine. The final score was 28 to 24.

AKRON WEST

Again a team from the Rubber City came down to Mansfield and again an Akron quintet skinned the Cats. This time the feat was accomplished by the Cowboys from Akron West. The local fans saw the best ball handling that it has been their privilege to see in many a game. However, the Bengals put up quite a fight and it was not until the horn went off that the issue was decided. The score was 25 to 23. Johnny Hallabrin again paced the Tygers with 11 points.

COLUMBUS EAST

With Dials and Scott leading the way with 12 and 11 points respectively, the Tygers eked out a 35 to 33 decision. This made the seventh game in which the scores were only separated by two points, and our Bengals have won six of these.

LAGRANGE

The local fans saw an out-of-state team from the basketball state, namely Indiana. The type of ball that the Hoosiers play must be excellent if the other teams play as well as Lagrange, a town of 1,600 inhabitants, because the local court cavorteers were hard pushed all the way. However, the Men of Murphy won 39 to 30.

This was the last game on the regular schedule for the Murphy-men, with the exception of a fray with the Alumni, which the Bengals dropped 33 to 29.

THE DISTRICT TOURNAMENT

In the tournament at Sandusky, the local lads were considered not to have a ghost of a show as they might meet such teams as Tiffin Columbian and Jr. Order, Bellevue, and Sandusky.

Mansfield was scheduled to meet in the first game the touted Tiffin Columbian outfit, one of the strongest aggregations in the tourney.

It was a ding dong affair from the start to finish. With two minutes to go, the Tiffin club had a 25 to 21 lead, but Tom Scott dropped in a pair of field goals to tie it up. Then as Ikey Smith let go with a wild shot, Jack Dugger calmly picked it off the back board and dumped the ball through the hoop as the final gun barked. The final score, 27 to 25.

In the next round, the Bengals again met a Tiffin quintet, this time it was Jr. Order. Jr. Order fell before the terrific onslaught of the Tygers 44 to 18. Shelley made eleven points to lead both teams in scoring.

As the next fray was with Bellevue, the team the dopesters had picked to go to the finals, Mansfield was figured as good as ousted. But again the Tygers upset the dope bucket, this time with a crushing 25 to 13 win over the favorites.

The Jungle Cats were destined to meet none other than the Sandusky Blue Streaks in the finals. The Blue Streaks in their other rounds did not seem to have the class that the Tygers had, but as they had defeated the localites once, they might turn the trick again. The Bay City boys hopped into an 8 to 3 lead in the first quarter. However, the Tygers soon overcome this lead and at the half led 13 to 11. Mansfield enjoyed a five to seven point lead thereafter, until the closing minutes when the Sandusky athletes cut it down to three points. Nevertheless, they were unable to get any closer and the gun banged, ending the old ball game. The score board said Mansfield 26, Sandusky 23. The Dark Horse Had Come Through. The Bengals Were Going to the State Tournament.

In the state tournament the Tygers ran into Cincinnati Roger Bacon. They were unable to score regularly, and consequently, they dropped a 31 to 25 decision. Scott and Lyons were outstanding for the Jungle Cats.

It ended a most successful season, considering the fact that Hallabrin was the only member who played in every game last season. Scott's shooting ability, along with the ball handling of "Jake" Lyons were two important factors in the Tyger wins as were Elmer Dial's rebounding, and Johnny Hallabrin's ability to come through in the pinch, likewise Jack Dugger, a sophomore, helped the Tygers along with his consistency.

TRACK

Although the track schedule has not been completed at this writing, it is believed that the Red Streaks will have a fairly successful season.

In its first meet the Red Streaks did not fare so well as they dropped a 69-49 decision to Fremont. Johnny Linta paced Mansfield with two firsts in the pole vault where Mansfield took all the places and in the 220 low hurdles. The other Mansfield wins were contributed by Nagle, Dials, and McMullen in the discus, high jump, and 440 yard dash, respectively. Although the local cinder churners were picked to cop most of the firsts, the fieldmen procured more. Both outfits were hindered by freezing weather.

With Linta leading the way, Mansfield thoroughly trounced a favored Newark team 75-43. Linta took both hurdle events and, of course, the pole vault. Joe Logan pounded out two firsts in the 100 and 220 dashes. Dick McMullen, Dials, and Bailet won firsts in the 440 and high jump respectively, also the 880 yard relay and mile relay teams broke the tape ahead of Newark.

The Red Streaks dropped a close decision 50¾ to 67¼, against Columbus North. Again Linta copped two firsts to lead the scoring. Joe Logan, ebony flyer, won the 100, and Dugger threw the discus 100 ft. to come in first, too. The mile relay team also pounded in first.

This year's edition of the local cinder burners were the first ones to go out of the state. They traveled to Erie Strong Vincent, Erie, Pa. However, the locals lost 56½ to 70½. Mansfield again dominated the pole vault with Linta winning, Hershey placing, and Lyons showing. Big Elmer Dials won the high jump and javelin throw. By the way, this was the only time "Hillbilly" could throw the spear as it is outlawed in this state. McMullen, Nagle, and Smith won the 440, discus, and broad jump respectively. The mile relay team composed of McMullen, Rose, Sampsel, and Fleming, came in first as did LeMunyon in the 220 dash.

O'Rourke of Warren clears the bar at 6 ft. 5½ in.

RELAYS

The 12th annual Mansfield Relays proved to be record-breaking in three ways. The crowd was the largest to ever witness this event. More than 1,300 athletes, representing 111 schools were present and eleven records were broken. Wright, of Huntington, W. Va., topped the tall timbers in 15 flat to eclipse the old record of 15.4, and he also set a new mark in the low hurdles of 26.2 seconds. The old one was 27 seconds. O'Rourke, of Warren, set a new high jump record of 6 feet 5½ inches to better the other one by 3¼ inches. In the half mile run, Brelsford of Birmingham, Mich., cut 5.33 seconds off when he turned in the time of 1 minute 59.2 seconds. Other new marks were set by Cleveland Central in the mile relay, the time being 3 minutes 36.6 seconds. Toledo Scott in the two-mile relay in 8 minutes 30.4 seconds. Erie, Pa., in the shuttle relay with the time of 1 minute 5.5 seconds. Giles of Newark in the shot put. He hurled the iron ball 50 feet 3¼ inches. Sorek of Erie, Pa., in the javelin throw, the spear going 180 feet 5 inches. Johnny Linta who scaled the bar when placed at 12 feet 8½ inches.

One of the disappointments of the carnival was Callista's poor showing. He ran the hundred in 9.8 seconds last year, and he was expected to repeat this year. However, he was bothered by a bad ankle and, consequently failed to place in the 100 yard and he ran a poor third in the 220.

A more perfect day could not be asked for by the spectators or contestants. The track was dry and fast.

Cleveland Central put on a last minute spurt to edge out Toledo Scott by a half point. In all, Central collected 25½ points. Sandusky, last year's champion, and Mansfield were not among the first ten.

The first stringers on the Tyger golf team are Moorhead, Bogner, Schlegel, Hallabrin. This should be an excellent year as all of last year's regulars are back. The Tygers lived up to this expectation as they downed Ashland 12 to 4. Capt. Bob Moorhead handed in an 80 to lead both teams. Chuck Schlegel pounded out an 85.

Hopes for victory were bright as the Tyger tankers went into action against a strong Sandusky outfit for practically all of the swimming squad were back, but the boys from the Bay City dove and splashed their way to a 44 to 18 win. Mansfield managed to take one first, when Al Baerren came out first in the fifty-yard free style.

In the next meet against Canton McKinley the Bengals' two "Al's", Baerren and Allen, won firsts in the 100-yard back stroke and the 100-yard free style, respectively. However, this was not enough as the Bulldogs garnered 38 points while Mansfield made only 22.

Again the local mermen met a Canton outfit. This time it was Lehman, but they lost. The final score was 32 to 28. However, the locals won three firsts. Dick Shaw won the diving, Baerren won the 50-yard free style, and Dick Shively came out first in the 100-yard breast stroke. Al Allen won the 100-yard back stroke, also, the free style relay team, composed of Walker, Betz, McGinty, and McCarthy won the 100-yard free style, nevertheless, the Tygers dropped the meet to Fremont, 38 to 28.

Against Toledo Devilbiss, the local mermen ran up a lot of seconds and thirds, while the medley team composed of Allen, Shively, and Lake, came in first to give the Tygers 24 points while the Toledo aggregation compiled 40. The season was cut short by the small pox epidemic, because the team was unable to get into the pool for three weeks. Thus, the mermen got out of condition and the rest of the meets were cancelled.
